

St Paul's Church, Knightsbridge
The Diocese of London

The Solemn Eucharist
of the Third Sunday of Lent

23 March 2014 at 11 a.m.

Welcome to St Paul's Knightsbridge. If you are visiting us from another church, please make yourself known to the sidesmen or to one of the clergy after the service. Members of all Christian churches are welcome to share with us in this Eucharist – and those who do not wish to receive the Sacrament are invited to approach the altar at the time of Communion, to receive a blessing.

There is a loop system in the lower parts of the church for the benefit of the hearing-impaired. Hearing aid users should switch their devices to 'T'.

giftaid it

During the service a collection will be taken for the work of the church in this parish, throughout the Diocese of London and further afield. Please use the special envelopes at the end of each pew to maximise your giving through the 'Giftaid' scheme.

Members of the congregation are asked to ensure that mobile phones are switched off (or to silent) and are reminded that the taking of photographs or the making of audio or video recordings during services is prohibited.

ORDER OF SERVICE

The Introductory Rite

At 11 o'clock, a bell is rung. All stand.

The Servers and Sacred Ministers enter from the west doors.

The Choir sings:

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.
Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Music: Missa Brevis, Simon Preston (b. 1938)

THE GREETING & THE ACT OF PENITENCE

When all are in their places the Celebrant says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all
and with thy spirit.

Brothers and sisters in Christ: during this holy season of Lent, the Church invites us, by prayer, penitence and self-denial, to grow in holiness and to be reminded of the infinite love and mercy of God. We, who are created in his image, have marred the divinity that is within us, and yet in Christ we are assured of eternal life and are made one with him.

Let us now keep silence, calling to mind our sins and giving thanks for the infinite mercy of God.

All kneel.

Silence is kept.

Water is presented to the Celebrant, who blesses it, saying:

Almighty God,
your gift of water brings life and freshness to the earth, and your water in baptism gives to us the gift of salvation.
Bless this water and grant that it may be for us a sign of the living spring of life which you alone renew within us to wash away our sin and fill us with your Spirit. Amen.

The Celebrant sprinkles the congregation with water.

The Choir sings:

Thou shalt purge me, O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
thou shalt wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.

Have mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

*'Asperges me'; Psalm 51. 1 & 8
Music: plainsong; Mode vii*

The Celebrant then pronounces the absolution, saying:

May the Father of all mercies
cleans us from our sins,
and restore us in his image
to the praise and glory of his name, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

All stand.

THE COLLECT

The Celebrant introduces a period of silent prayer:

Let us pray.

Thereafter, he sings:

Almighty God,
whose most dear Son went not up to joy but first he suffered pain,
and entered not into glory before he was crucified:
mercifully grant that we, walking in the way of the cross, may find it none other than the way of life and peace;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord,
who liveth and reigneth with thee,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

All sit.

THE FIRST READING

The book of the Exodus 17: 1-7

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarrelled with Moses, and said, 'Give us water to drink.' Moses said to them, 'Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?' But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?' So Moses cried out to the Lord, 'What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.' The Lord said to Moses, 'Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.' Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarrelled and tested the Lord, saying, 'Is the Lord among us or not?'

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALMODY

O come, let us sing unto the Lord :

let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.

2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving :

and shew ourselves glad in him with psalms.

3 For the Lord is a great God :

and a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are all the corners of the earth :

and the strength of the hills is his also.

5 The sea is his, and he made it :

and his hands prepared the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and fall down :

and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7 For he is the Lord our God :

and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

8 To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts :

as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness;

9 When your fathers tempted me : proved me, and saw my works.

10 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said :

It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways;

11 Unto whom I swear in my wrath :
that they should not enter into my rest.

Psalm 95

THE SECOND READING

The letter of Paul to the Romans 5: 1-11

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

All stand.

THE GRADUAL HYMN

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto me and rest;
lay down, thou weary one, lay down thy head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was,
weary, worn, and sad;
I found in him a resting place,
and he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold, I freely give the living water; thirsty one, stoop down and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank of that life-giving stream;
my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
and now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's light;
look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
and all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found in him my Star, my Sun;
and in that light of life I'll walk till traveling days are done.

Words: Horatius Bonar (1808-89)
Music: 'Kingsfold', adapted from an English folk song by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The Cantor sings:

Praise to thee, O Christ, king of eternal glory.

Praise to thee, O Christ, king of eternal glory.
Man does not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to thee, O Christ, king of eternal glory.

All turn to face the Deacon.

THE GOSPEL READING

The Deacon says:

The Lord be with you
and with thy spirit.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord, Jesus Christ, according to John.
Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you."

Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" They left the city and were on their way to him. Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, eat something." But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." So the disciples said to one another, "Surely no one has brought him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, 'Four months more, then comes the harvest'? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you did not labour. Others have laboured, and you have entered into their labour." Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I have ever done." So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. And many more believed because of his word. They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Saviour of the world."

John 4: 5-42

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THE SERMON

*The Reverend Prebendary Nick Mercer
Vicar General to the London College of Bishops and Honorary Assistant Priest*

Silence is kept.

THE CREED

All stand with the Celebrant, who says: Let us make affirmation of our faith.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
and of all things visible and invisible:
And in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of his Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of light,
very God of very God, begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation
came down from heaven,
and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost
of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried,
and the third day he rose again
according to the Scriptures,
and ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of the Father.
And he shall come again with glory
to judge both the quick and the dead:
whose kingdom shall have no end.
And I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceedeth from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the prophets.
And I believe One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church.
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins.
And I look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Solus ad victimam

Kenneth Leighton (1929-88)

Alone to sacrifice thou goest, Lord, giving thyself to Death whom thou hast slain. For us thy wretched folk is any word? Who know that for our sins this is thy pain?

For they are ours, O Lord, our deeds, our deeds. Why must thou suffer torture for our sin? Let our hearts suffer in thy Passion, Lord, that very suffering may thy mercy win.

This is the night of tears, the three days' space, sorrow abiding of the eventide, Until the day break with the risen Christ, and hearts that sorrowed shall be satisfied.

So may our hearts share in thine anguish, Lord, that they may sharers of thy glory be; Heavy with weeping may the three days pass, to win the laughter of thine Easter Day.

Peter Abelard (1079-1142), trans. Helen Waddell

After being censed, remain standing for the Eucharistic Prayer.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Celebrant sings:

All respond:

The Lord be with you R. and with thy spi-rit.

Lift up your hearts. R. We lift them up un-to the Lord.

Let us give thanks un - to the Lord our God.

R. It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right and our bounden duty that we should,
at all times and in all places, give thanks unto thee,
O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, thine only Son, our Lord.

For he is thy living Word;
through him thou hast created all things from the beginning,
and fashioned us in thine own image.

Through him thou didst redeem us from the slavery of sin, giving him to be born of a woman, to die upon the cross,
and to rise again for us.

Through him thou hast made us a people for thine own possession, exalting him to thy right hand on high, and sending forth through him thy holy and life-giving Spirit.

And now we give thee thanks because thou dost give us the spirit of discipline, that we may triumph over evil and grow in grace,
as we prepare to celebrate the paschal mystery with mind and heart renewed.

Therefore with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we laud and magnify thy glorious name,
evermore praising thee and saying:

The Choir sings:

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth,
Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua,
Hosanna in excelsis.
Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.

*Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.
Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.*

Music: Missa Brevis, Simon Preston (b. 1938)

The prayer continues:

Accept our praises, heavenly Father,
through thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ,
and as we follow his example and obey his command, grant that by the power of thy Holy Spirit these gifts of bread and wine may be unto us his body and his blood;
who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread;
and when he had given thanks to thee,
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

Likewise after supper he took the cup;
and when he had given thanks to thee, he gave it to them,
saying:
Drink ye all of this; for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father,
we remember his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross;
we proclaim his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension;
we look for the coming of his kingdom and with this bread and this cup
we make the memorial of Christ, thy Son, our Lord.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.
Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Accept through him, our great high priest,
this our sacrifice of thanks and praise,
and as we eat and drink these holy gifts
in the presence of thy divine majesty, renew us by thy Holy Spirit,
inspire us with thy love,
and unite us in the body of thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord,

by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be unto thee,
O Father almighty, world without end.

All sing, boldly: Amen.

All kneel. A short period of silence is kept.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Celebrant sings:

Let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heav'n, hallowed be thy name: thy king-dom come: thy will be done on earth as it is in heav'n. Give us this day our dai ly bread. And forgive us our tres-pas-scs, as we for-give those who tres-pass a-against us. And lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-li-ver us from e-vil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glo-ry, for e-ver and e-ver. A-men.

THE FRACTION

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, saying:

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

THE GIVING OF COMMUNION

By way of invitation to receive the Sacrament the Celebrant says:

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof,

but speak the word only and my soul shall be healed.

The Sacred Ministers and Servers receive Communion, followed by the people, beginning with those seated at the front of the Nave. Please leave space in the Chancel for the Choir to be able to see the Director of Music.

All who normally do so in their own Church are invited to receive the Sacraments.

Those who do not wish to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion are invited to approach the altar to receive a blessing, carrying this booklet in their hands as an indication to the Priest.

AGNUS DEI

The Choir sings:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Music: Missa Brevis, Simon Preston (b. 1938)

Let us fall down and worship,
And let the old law
Give way to a new rite,
And let faith stand forward
To make good the defects of sense.*

PRAYERS AFTER COMMUNION

The Celebrant introduces a period of silent prayer:

Let us pray.

Merciful Lord, grant thy people grace to withstand the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil, and with pure hearts and minds to follow thee, the only God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, we thank thee for feeding us with the body and blood of thy Son, Jesus Christ. Through him we offer thee our souls and bodies to be a living sacrifice. Send us out in the power of thy Spirit to live and work to thy praise and glory. Amen.

THE CONCLUDING HYMN

Jesu, the very thought of thee with sweetness fills my breast;
but sweeter far thy face to see,
and in thy presence rest.

Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
nor can the memory find,
a sweeter sound than thy blest Name,
O Saviour of mankind.

O hope of every contrite heart,
O joy of all the meek,
to those who fall, how kind thou art:
how good to those who seek!

But what to those who find? Ah, this nor tongue nor pen can show;
the love of Jesus, what it is,
none but his loved ones know.

Jesu, our only joy be thou,
as thou our prize wilt be;
Jesu, be all our glory now,
and through eternity.

NOTES ON THE READINGS

Exodus 17:1-7

The Israelites travel “by stages” towards the Promised Land. As God showed his power during their slavery, winning their freedom by inflicting ten plagues on the Egyptians, he now tests the Israelites’ faith in him, as provider and ruler, ten times. If they trust in him, he will save them. This reading is about one of the tests, but who tests whom? (vv. 2, 7). Earlier, at Marah, the people had water but it was bitter; here, at “Rephidim” (v. 1, an oasis in the Negev or Sinai) there is no water at all; the well has run dry. The Israelites are serious: the Hebrew translated “quarrelled” (v. 2) is a legal term. They bring a case against Moses, but to him, their charge is against God: they doubt that he can feed them, be their god, in this hostile desert environment. As in other tests, God simply grants the people’s request, without rebuking them. He orders Moses to take representatives of the people, “some of the elders” (v. 5) to the “rock at Horeb” (v. 6). The elders see his show of power. The parallel with Egypt continues: the “staff” (v. 5) is the same one Moses used to poison the Nile. (“Massah and Meribah”, v. 7, come from words for test and quarrel.) In giving manna, bread from heaven, earlier, and now water (from an earthly rock), God shows his mastery over creation.

Psalms 95

This psalm is known as the Venite, the Latin for “come”. Vv. 1-7a are an invitation to worship God. In early Israelite times, God was seen as the supreme deity, “above all [other] gods” (v. 3). He is master and ruler of the universe, for he is creator (vv. 3-5). (“Great King” was a title of emperors in the ancient Near East.) Worship him, for he is saviour, creator, ruler and protector! But worship without obedience is worthless, so “listen to his voice” (v. 7). Failure to adhere to God’s ways will have dire consequences, as it did for the Israelites during their “forty years” (v. 10) in the “wilderness” (v. 8): the Promised Land was God’s “rest” (v. 11, his permanent earthly dwelling place), but none of the “generation” (v. 10) that left Egypt entered it. Lifespans were shorter in those days.

Romans 5:1-11

Paul has already demonstrated that “we are justified by faith”. He says that there are three consequences of being justified (found worthy in God’s court):

- “peace with God”, a state of harmony with him,
- “hope” (v. 2) of sharing his power and eternal life, and
- being reconciled with him.

It is through Christ that we have “access to this grace”, this blessed state of harmony. We also bask in the glory (“boast”) of “our sufferings” (v. 3, and not our accomplishments). Through a progression from them to patient “endurance” under spiritual duress, to maturity in the faith (“character”, v. 4) we come to hope. This is hope of a certainty (“does not disappoint”, v. 5) for God’s love enters our very beings “through the Holy Spirit” (which is also God’s gift.) “For while we were still weak” (v. 6, i.e. before we knew Christ), at the appropriate time in God’s plan, “Christ died for the ungodly". It would be rare enough for anyone to die for a pious ("righteous", v. 7) person, and perhaps a bit more likely for a particularly "good person", but Christ sacrificed his life for us when we were neither: we were unredeemed sinners then! This proves God's love for us. So even more certainly, having been made worthy through his death ("blood", v. 9), will we evade adverse judgement ("wrath") at the end of time. Then we were against God ("enemies", v. 10), then we were restored to favour with God by Christ's death. Even more certainly will we be given eternal life ("saved") by the risen Christ ("by his life"). We even bask in God's glory through Christ, being now reconciled (v. 11).

John 4:5-42

Jesus enters Samaria en route from Judea to Galilee. Exhausted by the heat, Jesus rests; his disciples go for food (v. 8). Rabbis did not speak to strange women in public and Jews considered Samaritans ritually unclean, so the woman is surprised by Jesus' request (v. 9). Jesus answers her: if you knew that God gives to those who ask ("the gift of God", v. 10) and that I am his agent, you would be the one asking for a drink, "and he would have given you living water". She misunderstands, thinking that he asks for bubbly spring water. (A legend about Jacob: for him water rose to the top of this well and overflowed.) Are you counting on such a miracle, for "you have no bucket" (v. 11). This water was good enough for Jacob, so are you greater than him? Jesus contrasts the well water with "water gushing up to eternal life" (v. 14). (In John, living water is the vehicle of the gift of the Spirit in baptism.) While she still doesn't understand, she at least now asks (v. 15). Vv. 16-18 are difficult, but they do show that Jesus has insight, so he must be "a prophet" (v. 19), and can therefore resolve a religious dispute: the common ancestors of the two peoples worshipped on Mount Gerizim ("this mountain", v. 20) but Jews claim that the only proper worship site is Jerusalem. Jesus replies (v. 21): "the hour" of God's intervention in the world "is coming"; then cultic sites will be irrelevant. Samaritans, by accepting only part of the Bible, denied themselves access to the part of God's end-time plans given through the prophets ("what you do not know", v. 22); "Jews" are at least on the right track. The time is both "coming, and ... now here" (v. 23) to worship God spiritually, discerning "truth", the reality revealed in Jesus. God is "spirit" (v. 24, life-giving power). She decides to wait to understand until the "Messiah" (v. 25) comes, but Jesus tells her: "I am he" (v. 26). In her haste to tell others about this amazing man, she leaves her "water jar" (v. 28) behind. Come, she says, judge for yourselves! Jesus tells his disciples that the food that sustains his life is obeying the Father and completion of his task (v. 34). There is no time for delay (v. 35a) for God's harvest, "gathering fruit for eternal life" (v. 36, conversion to Christ) is ready now. Others have already begun to sow, have preached the good news. Meanwhile, after hearing the woman's witness, many hear for themselves and come to belief in Christ. Jesus is "truly the Saviour of the world" (v. 42).

NOTES ON THE MUSIC

Missa Brevis – Simon Preston (b. 1938)

Simon Preston was sub-organist of Westminster Abbey from 1962-7, and organist of Christ Church, Oxford from 1970 before returning to Westminster Abbey as Organist and Master of the Choristers in 1981. In 1965, for Edington Music Festival, he commissioned Psalm 119 verses 73 – 104, and in 1966 a set of five Anthems. In the following year, Preston wrote this Missa Brevis (Short Communion Mass), again for Edington Music Festival. His many organ recordings include the complete works of J.S. Bach and the Saint-Saëns Organ Symphony.

Solus ad victimam – Kenneth Leighton (1929 – 1988)

Kenneth Leighton was an English composer and pianist – writing Anglican Church music, concertos, chamber music, symphonies and an opera. His works were highly influenced by English composers such as Vaughan Williams, Britten and Walton, such as this anthem Solus ad victimam, as well as being exposed to Schoenberg, Webern and Berg from his studies in Italy in 1951. His single most widely-known piece is his setting of the Coventry Carol, which he composed as a student at Queen's College, Oxford, in 1948.

Tantum ergo – Maurice Duruflé (1902 – 1986)

Duruflé was a French composer and organist who studied at the Paris Conservatoire – later becoming Professor of Harmony there in 1943. He was appointed the assistant organist to Louis Vierne at Saint-Sulpice, Paris, in 1927. He is most well-known for his Requiem, but wrote many organ, piano, and choral works, and also transcribed pieces by Bach, Vierne, Faure and Schumann – mainly for organ solo. Duruflé's Tantum ergo comes from 'Quatre Motets sur des thèmes grégoriens' (Four motets on the Gregorian theme) written in 1960. The four motets are ideal companion pieces for the Requiem, each being based on the Gregorian chant in the same way as the movements in the Requiem. Here, Duruflé shows his particular intellect for raising the spiritual element of plainsong in a polyphonic context, achieving an agility of rhythm alongside strong portrayal of each text. Tantum ergo, the last of the motets, depicts a reflective, pensive style which characterises so much of the Requiem. In Tantum ergo, the chant is sung in long notes by the sopranos. The melody is imitated and varied by the tenors, while the other voices are freely composed, with a similar effect to cantus firmus settings of chants from the Renaissance period. There are no accidentals (notes outside the key in which it is written), and very little harmonic tension. The motet ends peacefully on a low chord, 'Amen'.

Paeon – Kenneth Leighton (1929 – 1988)

In addition to contributing greatly to the choral repertoire, Leighton also wrote a significant number of organ works. Paeon, meaning a song or lyric poem expressing triumph and thanksgiving, is a piece in which many familiar Leighton traits are used: from the striding, ambiguous rhythms to the variety of articulation. Compared to Leighton's later works which go beyond the influence of the English composers mentioned above, Paean always maintains the importance of melody at the forefront.

The Music & Musicians of St Paul's Knightsbridge

St Paul's Knightsbridge maintains a regular professional choir of eight and the services of both a Director (Stephen Farr) and Assistant Director of Music (Jeremy Cole). The organ is by Henry Willis & Sons and dates from 1888. The musical repertoire, Sunday by Sunday, is diverse and often boldly ambitious: at the Solemn Mass at 11 am there is always a choral mass setting and two seasonal anthems, one at the Offertory and the other during Communion. Full details of the music for each week – along with a programme note – is published in the service paper. The musicians also sing and play for weddings, baptisms, funerals and memorial services at the church.

St Paul's Knightsbridge is grateful to The Berkeley Hotel for its generous and neighbourly support of the music.
